

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
BEFORE THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

In re:)	PACA-APP Docket No. 13-0068
)
George Finch,)
)
Petitioner)
)
)	and
)
In re:)	PACA-APP Docket No. 13-0069
)
John Dennis Honeycutt,)
)
Petitioner)	Stay Order

I issued In re George Finch, __ Agric. Dec. ____ (June 6, 2014), affirming the Director of the PACA Division’s October 3, 2012, determinations that George Finch and John Dennis Honeycutt were responsibly connected with Third Coast Produce Company, Ltd., when Third Coast Produce, Ltd., violated 7 U.S.C. § 499b(4), and imposing the licensing restrictions in 7 U.S.C. § 499d(b) and the employment restrictions in 7 U.S.C. § 499h(b) on Mr. Finch and Mr. Honeycutt, effective 60 days after service of In re George Finch, __ Agric. Dec. ____ (June 6, 2014), on Mr. Finch and Mr. Honeycutt.

On August 19, 2014, the Director of the PACA Division, Mr. Finch, and Mr. Honeycutt filed a Joint Motion for Stay Order seeking a stay of the Order in In re George Finch, __ Agric. Dec. ____ (June 6, 2014), pending the outcome of proceedings for judicial review. The Director of the PACA Division, Mr. Finch, and Mr. Honeycutt's joint motion for a stay pending judicial review is granted pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 705.

For the foregoing reasons, the following Order is issued.

ORDER

The Order in In re George Finch, __ Agric. Dec. ___, (June 6, 2014), is stayed pending the outcome of proceedings for judicial review. This Stay Order shall remain effective until lifted by the Judicial Officer or vacated by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Done at Washington, DC

August 20, 2014

William G. Jenson
Judicial Officer