

States' Biofuels Statutes

STATE OF ARIZONA

This project was undertaken in partnership with the USDA Office of the Chief Economist, The Office of Energy Policy and New Uses. For information on the full project, visit States' Biofuels Statutory Citations. These statutes are placed in reverse chronological order using the date of the most recent amendment to the statute. Many biofuels laws were enacted as amendments to previously passed laws.

Current through the 2013 Legislative Session of the Arizona General Assembly.

§ 49-572. Joint use of clean burning or alternative fuel refueling stations

To the extent practicable, a state agency or political subdivision that operates a clean burning fuel or alternative fuel refueling station shall permit the refueling of vehicles owned or operated by any state agency or political subdivision at the refueling station.
