

States' Biofuels Statutes

STATE OF ARIZONA

This project was undertaken in partnership with the USDA Office of the Chief Economist, The Office of Energy Policy and New Uses. For information on the full project, visit States' Biofuels Statutory Citations. These statutes are placed in reverse chronological order using the date of the most recent amendment to the statute. Many biofuels laws were enacted as amendments to previously passed laws.

Current through the 2013 Legislative Session of the Arizona General Assembly.

§ 41-796. Regulation of traffic and parking; monetary penalties; hearing; state traffic and parking control fund; definition

- A. The department of administration may adopt and administratively enforce rules for the control of vehicles on state property with respect only to the following:
1. Maximum speed of vehicles.
 2. Direction of travel.
 3. Place, method and time of parking.
 4. Nonparking areas.
 5. Designation of special parking areas for state employees and the general public.
 6. Prohibiting parking in vehicle emissions control areas as defined in § 49-541 of those vehicles which fail to comply with § 49-542.
- B. The department shall adopt and administratively enforce rules requiring the designation of preferential parking areas, such as reserved, close-in or covered parking, to state employees with offices in vehicle emissions control areas as defined in § 49-541 who are car pool operators as defined in § 28-4032 or who drive vehicles powered by alternative fuel as defined in § 1-215.
- C. The department may prescribe and collect reasonable monetary penalties for violations of the rules adopted pursuant to subsection A of this section.
- D. The department shall:

1. Cause signs, markings and notices to be posted on the property for the regulation of vehicles.
 2. Maintain parking lots and structures.
- E. On the failure of a person who is issued a citation for a violation of a rule adopted pursuant to this section to appear, the administrative law judge may proceed to determine whether a violation has occurred and, if so, the penalty to be imposed.
 - F. Penalties that are imposed pursuant to this section and that are not paid within the time prescribed by the administrative law judge may be collected by an action filed with the justice court.
 - G. A state traffic and parking control fund is established consisting of monetary penalties collected pursuant to this section. The department shall administer the fund. Monies in the fund are continuously appropriated and are exempt from the provisions of § 35-190 relating to lapsing of appropriations.
 - H. All monetary penalties collected by the department for violations of the rules adopted pursuant to subsection A of this section shall be deposited in the state traffic and parking control fund.
 - I. Except as provided in § 41-1092.08, subsection H, a person who has received a final administrative ruling concerning a penalty imposed on the person as a result of a violation of a rule adopted pursuant to this section may have that ruling reviewed by the superior court in the county in which the institution involved is located pursuant to title 12, chapter 7, article 6.1
 - J. For the purposes of this section, “state property” means property that is the responsibility of the department under § 41-791 and property that is the responsibility of the speaker of the house of representatives or the president of the senate under § 41-1304.05.
