

States' Biofuels Statutes

STATE OF INDIANA

This project was undertaken in partnership with the USDA Office of the Chief Economist, The Office of Energy Policy and New Uses. For information on the full project, visit States' Biofuels Statutory Citations. These statutes are placed in reverse chronological order using the date of the most recent amendment to the statute. Many biofuels laws were enacted as amendments to previously passed laws.

Current through the 2013 Legislative Session of the Indiana General Assembly.

34-30-24-2 Person fueling non-flexible fuel vehicle with E85

Sec. 2. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a qualified person or entity is immune from civil liability for personal injury or property damage resulting from a person fueling any vehicle with E85 that is not a flexible fuel vehicle.

(b) This section does not apply:

- (1) to a qualified person or entity that fails to display all E85 warning signs required by federal or state law; or
- (2) if a person's injury or property damage is a direct result of the gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct of the qualified person or entity.
