N.M. Stat. § 25-12-3. Homemade food items; licensing, permitting, inspection and labeling exemptions; requirements; investigations

- A. The production and sale of homemade food items shall be regulated pursuant to the provisions of the Homemade Food Act and are exempt from other requirements pursuant to the Food Service Sanitation Act and the New Mexico Food Act; provided that:

- (1) the food items are not-time-and-temperature-control food items;
 - (2) the seller sells directly to consumers within the state, including at farmers' markets, at festivals, on the internet, at roadside stands, at the seller's home for pick-up or delivery or through mail delivery;
 - (3) the seller completes a food handler certification course approved by the department;
 - (4) the seller maintains a sanitary kitchen, practices good hygiene, protects the kitchen from rodents and pests and keeps pets and children out of the kitchen while producing food;
 - (5) if the seller transports food items pursuant to the Homemade Food Act, the seller ensures that the food is transported in a sanitary manner and is protected from pets, children and other hazards; and
 - (6) the seller labels or otherwise provides to the consumer the information required by Subsection C of this section.
- B. A seller shall provide to the consumer the information required by Subsection C of this section in the following manner:
- (1) on a label affixed to a package of a homemade food item when the package is the unit of sale;
 - (2) on a label affixed to a container when the homemade food item is offered for sale from a bulk container;
 - (3) on a placard displayed at the point of sale when the homemade food item is neither packaged nor offered for sale from a bulk container;
 - (4) on a webpage on which the homemade food item is offered for sale; and
 - (5) when a homemade food item is sold by telephone or custom order, a label is not required for the homemade food item; however, the seller shall disclose to the consumer that the homemade food item is produced at a private residence that is exempt from state licensing and inspection and may contain allergens.
- C. A seller shall provide the following information about the seller's homemade food items to the consumer:
